Animals that cannot be ref. D.'d (unscared) are dropped from the scar sheet at season's end.

Animals that can be recognized are kept on a very year drop.

The "Practical Scar Sheet" uses a 3 to 5 year drop and tries to show only scars visible at a distance from the shore. Animals with no such marks are left off.

The "Practical Scar Sheet" is alphabetical.